

Four Ways to Get Support for the Church of the Redeemer and the Lunch Program

1. Through United Way

If you give to the United Way, by either a receiptable cash donation or through payroll deduction, you can have your gift designated to an eligible charity, like the Church of the Redeemer.

By cheque - Write on your cheque that the donation be designated to the Church of the Redeemer, quoting our charitable number 118863729RR0001.

By payroll deduction - Look carefully on the payroll deduction form.

2. Matching Gift Program

Find out if your employer has a matching gift program - an eligible employee's gift to an eligible institution, like the Church of the Redeemer, is matched in cash by a gift from the employer.

Check the list beginning on page 2 below to see if your employer participates. If your employer is on the list, find out specific information and contact your HR department to make arrangements. If it isn't, ask your HR department anyway and see if it would be possible.

3. Company Foundation

Does your employer have a foundation or charitable giving committee? If so, is there a way that your interest in the Lunch Program would be supported by the foundation or charitable giving program?

4. Get Paid for your Volunteer Time

Some employers will match your donation of volunteer time with a financial donation. For example, if you work for RBC, your donation of 40 hours of volunteer time could be matched by $500 from RBC. The Lunch Program wins in two ways!
